THE Collection now offered for Public Sale in this Catalogue, formed the whole of the Library, collected by a coincidence of diligence, taste, and good sense, by the late Revcrend Possessôr of it, and his learned Father, after a pursuit of near a century; with this exception, that in order not to be entirely without Books from May to November, at which time he resides at his rural Rectory, he has reserved for himself the Transactions of the Royal and Antiquarian Societies, and a few other Books, amounting in the whole to about three hundred pounds worth. Indeed, some time since, a most delicate application was made for the three following Books out of this Library, viz.

1st, CLARKE'S HOMER, 4to. the finest possible Copy, on LARGE PAPER.

2d, BARNES' EURIPIDES, a charming Copy, on LARGE PAPER.

3d, And lastly, MAITTAIRE'S CORPUS POETARUM, a fine tall Copy, on LARGE PAPER; but as the Reverend Gentleman was not a Bookseller, and the Applicant was, though the request was complied with, no money passed, but Sixty Pounds or Guineas was most liberally allowed by the Purchaser in modern books.

Thus far it was thought necessary to state, to shew that, with the exception of the three above stated articles, not a Book has been taken away, or a Book added: they are all pure and perfect, and form the entire Collection, with the above exceptions. It was the wish of my deceased Friend, whose Property they were, and to whose Executors the Proceeds will be paid, to have them sold without the least reserve; and as he passed through life with the most active, though unostentatious friendship towards all mankind, and died without a blemish or spot on his character, or any asperity of resentment to any one person whatever—though his latter moments were attempted to be disturbed by an incivility and wrong interpretation of motives, from a quarter the least and last to be expected—the last act of his life was an act of the most noble munificence and friendship.

I am sure his Executors will carry his intentions most religiously into execution, and not bid by themselves, or any other person on their account, for any one article contained in this Catalogue. The only interest that I have in the Sale of this Library, is four per cent., and the expences out of pocket; and I do most solemnly declare, that I will not bid for, or buy on my own account, any one Book.

EDWARD JEFFERY,
No. 11, Pall-Mall.

N.B The above is an introduction and particular catalogue of the contents of all the great historical collections of Hebrew, Greek Roman and Christian Antiquities; such as Arndt, Dassovius, Grævius, Gronovius, Burman, Montfaucon, Polenus, the Thesaurus Antiquitate Hebraicarum, 34 vol. folio, the Thesaurus Germanicarum, the Scriptores de Sacerdotibus, &c. &c. The preceding article, No. 240, contains a particular account of all the treasures contained in ancient Greek learning, sacred and profane, together with the history and Sciences. I hope it will be a sufficient apology and excuse to say, that such an attempt as giving the contents in this Catalogue is out of the power of the compiler of it, and will not be even aimed at in its further progress, as he would deem himself impertinent and intrusive in the extreme in doing so.

Lexicon Heptaglotton, a Castello, 2 vol. London, 1657

With the republican leaves. This noble work was begun in October 1653, under the patronage and protection of Oliver Cromwell, and Walton thought himself bound in gratitude and honour to dedicate his Polyglot unto him; but the Protector dying before it was finished, many leaves of the preface was recomposed and reprinted in order to gratify Charles the Second, with some pretty severe invectives against the republicans; Charles, in return for this civility, made Dr. Walton his chaplain, and Bishop of Chester A few copies had escaped with the original leaves, and this is one of them. However, this has the loyal dedication likewise, and is the finest book of its kind in the world. It is cut as large as possible, ruled with red lines throughout, and bound in red morocco, gilt leaves, by ROGER PAYNE, in his best way; with the fine portrait of Walton by Lombart; the frontispiece, map, plan of Jerusalem, large plate of sacred Architecture, the three views of the Temple of Jerusalem on one large sheet, with the large plate of the interior of the temple, altarpiece, chandaliers, &c. with the vestiges of the Temple as it appeared in the time of Herod, all engraved by HOLLAR, in his neatest manner, with the portrait of Castello engraved by FAITHORNE.

The following is a manuscript note which Mr. Pope made in his copy of this book: — An ignorant, plain man, having learned his Pater Noster and Ave Maria, wants to learn his Creed; he asks several religious men of the several orders to teach it him. First of a Friar-Minor, who bids him beware of the Carmelites, and assures him they can teach nothing, describing their faults, &c.; but that the Friar-Minors shall save him, whether he learns his Creed or not. He goes next to the Friar Preachers whose magnificent monastery he describes. There he meets a fat friar, who declaimes against the Augustines. He is shocked at his pride, and goes to the Augustines; they rail at the Minorites: he goes to the Carmelites, they abuse the Dominicans, but promise him salvation, without the Creed, for money. He leaves them with indignation, and finds an honest poor ploughman in the field, and tells him how he was disappointed by the four orders: the ploughman answers with a long invective against them.—N. B. The Author was Robert Longland.

Books printed by the Illustrious Family of the Stephens's.

2985 Bovilli Opera de Intellectu de Sensu de oppositorum de Generatione de Sapiente, &c. &c. with a great number of curious wood cuts, bound by Baumgarten, extremely rare, the only copy I have ever seen, and came out of the Jesuits'

Library at Paris on their dispersion
H. Stephanis, 8vo 1510

N. B. The above work was printed by the Patriarch of the family of the Stephens's, any honourable minded being who looks at this Book, and knows the history and unmerited fate of this truly illustrious man's sons, and does not shed a tear and feel indignation, ought never to enter the kingdom of Heaven. A very curious fact may be discovered, on looking over this work, though of the size of a small folio, it is absolutely an octavo, for on collating the signature, there are eight leaves to make up the sheet.

This is the most celebrated publication of the 15th century. Mr. Palmer observes in his History of Printing, 'this excellent work I have seen in the curious library of Dr. Mead, and I dare affirm, that whoever examines the whiteness and strength of the paper, the fineness of the character, the elegant disposition of the matter, the exact distance between the lines, the large margin, in short the whole performance with its various ornaments, will easily own it a master-piece in that kind.'

Mr. Gibbon remarks, speaking of Aldus, his glory must not tempt us to forget the Florence Homer of 1488, which displays all the luxury of the typographical art.
